The funeral will be held at St. Joseph's Cathedral. Burial will be in St. Joseph's cemetery.

RED CROSS WORK.

Circular Letter Going to Branches of Vermont Chapter from Headquarters.

Red Cross workers in Vermont will be particularly interested in the circular letter that is to be sent out this week to branches from the headquarters in this city. The substance of the letter follows:

Vermont branches can no longer purchase material, with the exception of cut garments, at the northeastern division supply service, 142 Berkeley street. The officers of the division have decided to furnish material to the branches through the Vermont chapter to establish a supply service for the State. In accordance with these directions Miss Bertha Cary of Proctor has been designated to have charge of this work.

Branches that order for supplies (except cut garments) should be sent to Miss Bertha Cary, chairman State supply service, Proctor, and goods will be sent C. O. D. by parcel post or express, unless check accompanies order. Requests for material should be sent to the Vermont chapter, to be sent to the State supply service, at Proctor, on the first day of each month, on monthly supply blanks furnished. Then make shipment to Boston Red Cross service, 142 Berkeley street, until further notice, on the fifth of the month of all and all goods not contained on the reported list. Hold all knitted goods until called for as per circular No. 5, August 21, 1917.

It is very essential that the supplies be kept track of closely and we sincerely hope that you will accurately follow these instructions.

Branches are requested not to send any more supplies to Burlington, but see that every drafted soldier in its locality is supplied with pajamas, handkerchiefs, and "housewife," complete, before leaving home.

Division Red Cross supply service, Boston, reports it has forwarded between June 8 and August 13, 648 boxes of surgical dressings for American Red Cross in Europe. It has also sent one box of dressings to each 24 United States warships.

The director asks that branches mark the boxes they ship by a number on each that they may report which box has been received. Paper boxes or packages should be very tightly tied with plenty of strong string as many packages arrive broken open.

Requests of supplies at Boston are increasing, but the need grows and the service is distributing the supplies where the need is greatest.

The following announcements are made: The resignation of Mrs. J. J. Estey of Brattleboro as a member of the State executive committee, accepted August 11.

Appointments to the State executive committee: Gen. Lee S. Titlow of Montpelier to represent the department of military relief and George O. Gridley of Windsor the department of civilian relief.

The thanks of the State executive committee is extended to the branches for their generous response to the requests of the Vermont public safety committee, in supplying the members of the First Vermont infantry regiment with pajamas, comforters, handkerchiefs, and "housewife," before they left for active service.

Presidents of branches will please arrange to hold the annual meetings not later than October 1 and have secretaries report to the State executive committee. State chapter meeting, October 10 in order that he may consolidate all reports in time for the chapter's annual meeting to be held at Burlington about November 9 (exact date announced later).

By direction, REDFIELD PROCTOR, Chairman.
